SANFORD, Fla. - An emotional 911 call left a Florida church on Monday apologizing for the shooting of a young worship leader on Sunday. Bob Barker, pastor of Kirkwood Church in Gainesville, Fla., said they issued the apology because they felt that the shooting at one of their services Saturday was an accident that stemmed from the emotional display of the victim. "It's about people being confused. It's about people being in a state of confusion. And, you know, confusion can lead to consequences," Barker said. Barker said the church had "many things going on" in the life of Emmanuel Aranda -- who suffered the gunshot wound to the head -- and the three men who have been arrested haven't been charged with anything. "Emmanuel was the breadwinner for his family. He was a great person who said please and thank you. He was full of grace and love. We love you, Emmanuel," Barker said. Police said the men were at the church to play a guitar and sing. Aranda was pronounced dead at the hospital. His grandfather, Michael Aranda, said he was looking at "a beautiful family reunion." "He was the kind of guy that, if he saw you with a rough day at work, he'd say, 'It's going to be alright

What's new:

- Fifa 22 introduces "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 22 gameplay.
- Fifa 22 introduces over 500 new animations through the game, and introduces new props and abilities for Pro Clubs. New animations and props include dynamic player animations, more accurate player collisions, and the ability for players to defend and dribble the ball with torsos and sprint towards the ball with specific feet. Interesting abilities include players running backwards using only their legs, one on one, or with both the head and body. Players can perform some of these moves simultaneously.
- In Career Mode, players will now be able to see and experience what it's like to control a club from the players' perspective in a 3D environment.
- Five new stadiums with new club environments, new logos, animated mascots, player names and flags.
- New broadcast replays that offer a more vivid perspective and different camera angles for pre-game, halftime and post-game replays.
- Fifa 22 introduces several new training drills and training equipment, based on player movements, that will help players develop new tricks, passes and skills.
- New physical and mental fatigue ratings. There's a new fatigue system for training, as well as a breakdown of player performance indicators that allow players to fine-tune their tactics and training preparation based on overall and short-term health.
- Fifa 22 introduces a customizable "USA Bar" fan experience in-game, complete with personalized stadium and enhancements on the way.
- Fifa 22 adds 16 countries to the "International XI" roster for the first time, and features a new collaborative mode called "Create-A-Player," which lets fans collaborate to create new players. Fans can also discuss and rate which players, formations, stadiums, kits and other content they would like to see.
